Known Issues

This section describes all known issues for this release.

Issue	Description
63433	When a condition based on certain properties is open for editing, and the user navigates to another property in the Properties tree, the Condition pane does not display existing content in text fields when the user returns to the originally selected property. Select Cancel to close the Condition dialog box without losing existing content. This is a general issue caused by the CounterACT Console, but is especially relevant to the properties of this plugin that use commands or scripts.
