

FORESCOUT TECHNOLOGIES, INC. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Professional Services Agreement (“Agreement”) is a legal agreement between you (“Customer”), the entity on whose behalf Customer is authorized to enter this Agreement and all of Customer’s Affiliates that may use the services provided herein, and ForeScout Technologies, Inc. (“ForeScout”). When Professional Services are purchased by Customer, the following terms and conditions apply. If Customer purchases such Professional Services for its Affiliate(s) to use in connection with the ForeScout products, Customer will ensure that such Affiliate complies with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Customer’s standard terms and conditions of sale, purchase order or other documents are for Customer’s convenience only and any terms set forth therein that are inconsistent with, vary from, or add to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement shall not be binding on ForeScout unless agreed to in writing by ForeScout and are hereby rejected.

1. DEFINITIONS.

“Affiliate” means an entity that controls (i.e. parent), is controlled by (i.e. subsidiary), or under common control with (i.e. sister) a party to this Agreement.

“Base Module(s)” means the software modules that are included in the CounterACT® software without any additional charge to Customer.

“Extended Module(s)” means the software modules purchased by Customer at additional cost to provide functionality beyond the base CounterACT software.

“Module(s)” means the Base Modules and Extended Modules.

“Product(s)” means the Hardware and the Software provided by ForeScout.

“Software” means the CounterACT software programs installed on the Hardware or downloaded electronically which provide the network scanning functionality, the Modules, Service Packs, bug fixes, and any other updates provided by ForeScout under this Agreement.

2. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES.

If purchased by Customer, ForeScout will provide Customer certain implementation, configuration, consulting, or training services (the “Professional Services”) as more fully described in a Statement of Work referencing this Agreement (“SOW”), or in a ForeScout datasheet (“Datasheet”), as the case may be.

3. FEES AND EXPENSES.

3.1. Scope. The terms of this Section 3 (Fees) only apply if Customer purchases Professional Services directly from ForeScout. If Customer purchases Professional Services from an authorized distributor or reseller, the applicable price and payment terms are determined by Customer’s agreement with such distributor or reseller.

3.2. Fees and Payment. ForeScout shall invoice Customer for the applicable Professional Services fees under this Agreement. Unless otherwise provided herein or in a SOW, the fees, charges and/or expenses due in accordance with this Section 3 (Fees) shall be invoiced upon completion of the Professional Services and shall be payable by Customer within thirty (30) days of the date of each invoice. Any Professional Services ordered but not used within twelve (12) months of the date of the order shall be cancelled and invoiced, and no refund or credit shall be due to Customer. ForeScout shall subject all past due payments of undisputed amounts to interest accruing thereafter at the lesser of 1.5% per month or the highest lawful rate.

3.3. Taxes. Professional Services fees are exclusive of all taxes, including sales, use, personal property, value-added, excise, customs fees, import duties, stamp duties and any other similar taxes and duties, including penalties and interest, imposed by any United States federal, state, provincial or local government entity or any non-US government entity. Customer agrees to pay all such taxes due in respect of the Professional Services which will be added to the total amount invoiced to Customer, unless Customer furnishes ForeScout with a valid resale or exemption certificate. If Customer is required by law to make any deduction or to withhold from any amount payable to ForeScout hereunder, then the amount payable by Customer upon which the deduction or withholding is based shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that, after such deduction or withholding, ForeScout receives and retains, free from liability for such deduction or withholding, a net amount equal to the amount ForeScout would have received and retained in the absence of such required deduction or withholding. In the event that ForeScout is required to or does pay any taxes for which Customer is responsible, Customer, upon being advised of these payments, will immediately repay the amount thereof to ForeScout.

3.4. Expenses. ForeScout shall invoice Customer for approved expenses incurred as a result of performing Professional Services in accordance with the SOW or Datasheet. In the event that the SOW or Datasheet does not state that expenses are included in the Professional Services fees, then Customer shall reimburse ForeScout for any expenses reasonably and properly incurred by ForeScout in its performance of the Professional Services, provided that ForeScout submits copies of valid receipts to Customer.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY.

4.1. Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” means any information which is disclosed by a party (the “Discloser”) in connection with this Agreement, directly or indirectly, in writing, orally or by drawings or inspection of equipment or software, to the other party (the “Recipient”) or any of its employees or agents and that is designated or marked as “confidential” or “proprietary” at the time of disclosure or that, based on the circumstances surrounding the disclosure, the Recipient knows or reasonably should know is considered confidential. The restrictions on disclosure set forth in this Section shall not apply to Confidential Information which: (i) becomes publicly known without breach of this Agreement; or (ii) the Recipient can show by written records was rightfully in its possession prior to the disclosure by the Discloser or becomes rightfully known to the Recipient without confidential or proprietary restriction from a source other than the Discloser; (iii) is approved for disclosure without the restriction in a written document which is signed by a duly authorized officer of the Discloser, or (iv) is independently developed by the Recipient prior to disclosure without reference to the Discloser’s Confidential Information.

4.2. Obligations. Recipient may use the Discloser’s Confidential Information solely for the purpose of exercising its rights and performing its obligations under this Agreement. Recipient agrees to take the same care with the Discloser’s Confidential Information as it does with its own information of a similar nature, but in no event with less than a reasonable degree of care. Recipient shall limit access to the Confidential Information to those persons having a need to know such information in order to exercise Recipient’s rights and obligations under this Agreement. Recipient may disclose Confidential Information: (i) insofar as disclosure is reasonably necessary to carry out and effectuate the terms of this Agreement; (ii) insofar as the Recipient is required by law or legal proceedings to disclose such information provided that the Recipient provides the Discloser with prompt written notice of such requirement to enable the Discloser to seek a protective order; (iii) insofar as disclosure is necessary to be made to the Recipient’s independent accountants for tax or audit purposes; and (iv) insofar as the parties may mutually agree in writing upon language to be contained in one or more press releases. In addition, neither party will disclose to any third party the terms of this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNERSHIP.

5.1. Customer Material. Customer shall retain all rights, title and any and all Customer products, data, plans, specifications, reports, designs, network architecture, documentation and other similar information, or any derivatives thereof, developed, used or disclosed by Customer in its receipt of Professional Services under this Agreement and any applicable SOW (collectively “Customer Materials”). Except as explicitly set forth herein, no rights, title and interest in any Customer Materials are transferred to ForeScout.

5.2. ForeScout Material. ForeScout shall retain all rights, title and interest in all Products data, plans, processes, methods, specifications, reports, designs, templates, scripts, code, technological “know how”, technology, documentation and other similar information, and any derivatives thereof, developed, used or disclosed by ForeScout (or a third party service provider acting on ForeScout’s behalf) in the provision of Professional Services under this Agreement and any applicable SOW (collectively “ForeScout Materials”). Except as explicitly set forth herein, no rights, title or interest in any ForeScout Materials are transferred to Customer under this Agreement.

5.3. Work Product. To the extent ForeScout Materials are incorporated into the Professional Services or deliverables provided under this Agreement (collectively, “Work Product”), such Work Product is provided to Customer in a non-transferable, non-exclusive, world-wide and royalty free license to use the Work Product solely for Customer’s internal business purposes upon payment in full of all fees and expenses due to ForeScout for the applicable Professional Services and deliverables and subject to the Product license use restrictions, provided that (i) Customer may modify and enhance deliverables consisting of scripts and code solely for its own internal business purposes, and (ii) Customer will own the portion of the deliverables delivered to Customer in tangible form consisting of written reports, analyses, architecture diagrams, projects plans and similar working documents. Customer agrees not to reverse engineer any software included in the Work Product.

5.4. Reservation of Rights. Each party reserves all intellectual property rights not expressly granted to the other party under this Agreement. Customer acknowledges and agrees that, subject to its confidentiality obligations in Section 4 (Confidentiality), ForeScout is not restricted from developing, implementing, marketing or selling services or deliverables for other customers or projects that are similar to the Professional Services or deliverables provided under this Agreement.

6. WARRANTIES.

6.1. ForeScout Warranties. ForeScout represents and warrants that the Professional Services provided hereunder shall be provided in a professional and workmanlike manner. In the event of a breach of this warranty, ForeScout shall re-perform the applicable Professional Services within a reasonable time provided that Customer notifies ForeScout in writing within thirty (30) days following the date of completion of the Professional Services. The foregoing shall be Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, and ForeScout's sole and exclusive obligation, for a breach of the warranty set forth in this Section 6.1 (ForeScout Warranties).

6.2. Warranty Disclaimer. EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED IN SECTION 6.1 (ForeScout Warranties), THERE ARE NO OTHER WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE OR NONINFRINGEMENT.

7. INDEMNITY.

7.1. General Indemnification. Each party shall indemnify, defend and hold the other party harmless from the associated costs and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) finally awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to in settlement or compromise, to the extent that such fees and costs arise from a third party claim, proceeding or suit which is based on the grossly negligent acts or willful misconduct of its employees or agents, that directly causes damage or bodily injury to persons or property, real or tangible, and such damage or bodily injury directly arises out of performance of this Agreement.

7.2. IP Indemnity. ForeScout shall indemnify, defend and hold the other party harmless from the associated costs and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) finally awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction or agreed to in settlement or compromise, to the extent that such fees and costs arise from a third party claim, proceeding or suit alleging that the Professional Services, or portion thereof, infringes any patent, copyright or trade secret that is protected under the applicable jurisdiction in which the Professional Services are performed.

7.3. Procedure. The third party claims described in Section 7.1 and 7.2 shall be each referred to as a "Claim." ForeScout's obligations hereunder shall be conditioned on Customer promptly notifying ForeScout of any such Claim and permitting ForeScout to assume full control over the defense and settlement of such Claim; provided however, that: (i) ForeScout shall keep Customer informed of, and consult with Customer in connection with the progress of such litigation or settlement; and (ii) ForeScout shall not have any right, without Customer's written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), to settle any such Claim if such settlement contains a stipulation to or admission or acknowledgment of any liability or wrongdoing (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) on Customer's part, or requires any specific performance or non-pecuniary remedy by Customer.

7.4. Exceptions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ForeScout will have no obligation to Customer under this Section 7 (Indemnity) to the extent that any such Claim arises or results from (i) the unauthorized or improper use by Customer of the Professional Services or any deliverables thereof provided by ForeScout under this Agreement; (ii) the combination of the Professional Services or any deliverables thereof provided by ForeScout under this Agreement with other products or services not provided by ForeScout, to the extent that such Claim would not have resulted except for such combination; (iii) the alteration or modification of the Professional Services or any deliverables thereof by or for Customer without ForeScout's written consent, if such Claim would have been avoided in the absence of such alteration or modification; or (iv) the Claim could be avoided by Customer's use of alternative Professional Services or deliverables provided to Customer by ForeScout and which performs in a substantially similar fashion as the Professional Services or deliverables at issue.

7.5. IP Remedies. Should the Professional Services provided under this Agreement become, or in ForeScout's reasonable opinion be likely to become, the subject of an infringement claim, ForeScout may, at its sole discretion and expense, either: (i) procure for Customer the right to exercise its rights under this Agreement; or (ii) re-perform the Professional Services so that they are non-infringing, provided that Customer receives the material benefits Customer had expected from the Professional Services. If ForeScout determines in its sole discretion that (i) or (ii) are not commercially reasonable, ForeScout shall so notify Customer in writing and terminate this Agreement. Upon ForeScout's written notice of the termination, Customer shall return to ForeScout all affected ForeScout deliverables (including any affected Products) in Customer's possession for a pro-rata refund of the fees paid by Customer to ForeScout for the affected Professional Services calculated over a 36 month period on a straight line basis.

7.6. Entire Obligation. This Section 7 (Indemnity) states the entire liability of ForeScout and Customer's exclusive remedy with respect to any Claim.

Professional Services provided for herein and in the SOWs. Either party may terminate this Agreement for the other party's material breach that is not cured within thirty (30) days of the date of notice of the breach. In the event of any termination of this Agreement, Customer agrees to pay ForeScout, within fifteen (15) days from date of termination, for all Professional Services performed, whether invoiced or work in process, up to the effective date of termination. Sections 4 (Confidentiality), 5 (Rights to Work Product), 6.2 (Warranty Disclaimer), 7 (Indemnity) 8 (Term and Termination), 9 (Limitation of Liability), 10 (Non-Solicitation), 11 (Compliance with Laws), and 12 (General) shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason.

12.1. Independent Contractors. The relationship of ForeScout and Customer is that of independent contractors. There is no relationship of agency, partnership, joint venture, employment or franchise between the parties. Neither party has the authority to bind the other or to incur any obligation on the other's behalf or to represent itself as the other's agent or in any way that might result in confusion as to the fact that the parties are separate and distinct entities. ForeScout may subcontract the Professional Services, provided that ForeScout remains responsible for performance of all terms and conditions of this Agreement.

12.2. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable for any loss, damage, or penalty resulting from delays or failures in performance resulting from acts of God,

However, notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may assign this Agreement in its entirety to (i) any entity under the common control with that party; (ii) any successor in interest to such party by way of merger or consolidation located in the United States; or (iii) a purchaser of all or substantially all of the assets of such party, provided that the assignee agrees in writing to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement or of any SOW is invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the enforceability of remaining provisions shall be unimpaired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, ForeScout may amend the terms and conditions of this Agreement or any other documents and policies referenced herein at any time, including without limitation by posting such revised terms on its website www.forescout.com or the location of such other document or policy. Such amended terms and conditions shall be binding on Customer on the effective date of such change and shall supersede any prior version (including of this Agreement) which may have been embedded in or packaged with the product itself. Except for the exclusive remedies specified herein, each party will have all rights and remedies available to it at law or in equity for the protection of its rights hereunder, including an injunction enjoining the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement.
